

Friends Of Newport Rugby Trust (FONR)

11 year old Alfie Humphreys was one of our first mascots some six seasons ago so it was very special for us to have him back again to start proceedings this season.

Alfie met his favourite player Sam Waldron before kick off and led out the team with skipper Dai Pattison.

Unfortunately his inspiration was not heeded as Newport slumped to a shock defeat to Llanelli which took the gloss off the occasion.

Tonight we welcome seven year old Ryan Coombes as mascot - Ryan who attends Ysgol Cymraeg Caerfilli and also plays for Caerphilly U8 RFC.

We would also like to give another welcome to Eveswell Junior School as tonight's Guard of Honour!

Eveswell are regular visitors to Rodney Parade and always provide plenty of noise and support for the Black & Ambers!

Become a Match Day Guest of FoNR at Newport RFC home fixtures!

We still have a few home fixtures free for individuals to become official mascots as well as groups, teams or schools to take part in our training sessions and become the Guard of Honour – to get more information please email Nick Jackson on community@newportrugbytrust.co.uk

Welcome to Bedwas RFC

FoNR would like to offer a great Rodney Parade welcome the supporters, players and officials of local rivals Bedwas. Newport come into this game after two heavy defeats whilst Bedwas have two wins out of three following an impressive win over Swansea on the weekend. The black and ambers will be keen to get a win over Bedwas this season after last season's league double!
