

Four seasons ago FoNR provided sponsorship for a new venture at St.Julians High School Old Boys RFC to help them kick off three junior teams. We are incredibly satisfied to now report that there are over a hundred youngsters playing for the club in six teams from U7 up to U13. Last Saturday the U13 and U12 were on parade to provide the Guard of Honour for the Llandoverly and Newport teams as they ran out on the world famous Rodney Parade turf. Today we joined by some more of the St.Julians High School Old Boys RFC junior teams as they cheer on the Black and Ambers.

Second Row Adam Frampton was the winner for the second month in a row when he scooped up over 75% of the supporters votes for the November award. Adam has had a great season so far for the Black and Ambers and has really been on top form. Adam is pictured receiving his trophy from membership secretary John Evans.

The Friends of Newport Rugby Trust would like to welcome all the supporters, players and officials of our local rivals, Cross Keys RFC to Rodney Parade for today's British & Irish Cup fixture. This will be the third meeting between our two clubs this season with it currently being one win each both teams will be looking for local 'bragging rights' although the BIC competition looks over for both.
