The Friends of Newport Rugby Trust Annual Beer Festival at Rodney Parade takes place on Friday 19th and Saturday 20th September. The festival will coincide with Newport RFC taking on Welsh Premiership champions Pontypridd, whilst on the Saturday afternoon the Dragons take on Glasgow.

The Friends of Newport Rugby Trust would like to welcome all the supporters, players and officials of Pontypridd RFC to Rodney Parade for today's league fixture. It's the first home game of the season for the Black and Ambers and they'll be tested well by a strong Ponty team that scored a bonus point victory over Neath in the first set of league games. We hope you can stay for a beer or two also!

Happy New Year! It's been a long off-season but the Friends of Newport Rugby Trust have been working hard throughout to ensure that rugby at Rodney Parade and throughout the Newport area starts the season off in the best possible fashion. You can do your bit by joining the Trust and/or becoming a Bullion Draw member where you can also win some BIG cash prizes every month! Check it all out on www.fonr.co.uk.
